

Emerging Technology Consortium

"Innovation Empowers"

Capabilities and Marketing Statement

LEADERSHIP: Darold L. Hamlin, President | Lyn R. Williams, Executive Director

CAPABILITIES:

The Emerging Technology Consortium (ETC) is a nonprofit – 501 c 4 dedicated to using technology and innovation to create opportunities in all communities – result next generation businesses with good paying jobs. The ETC provides consulting services to governments and organizations that want to leverage their assets to create 21st Century businesses and jobs. With over 25 years of experience at all levels of government – Federal, state, municipal and quasi-governmental – the ETC is led by Darold Hamlin who has served as a Chief Information Officer at all levels of government and has a unique understanding of the issues that confront government as they attempt to create new opportunities in the 21st Century Global Economy. The ETC is a unique organization based in Washington, DC that government, Historically Black Colleges and Universities and community organizations that want to revitalize their communities.

Strategic Economic Development Planning & Government Affairs:

- Economic Development Planning
- Legislative Advocacy
- Strategic Communications
- Technology Incubator Studies
- Academic Industrial Partnerships

NAICS Codes:

541618-Management

Consulting Services

DUNS Number: 146581363

Federal Registrations: Non-Profit

Ecommerce Ready/Accept Government Purchase Cards: YES

Certifications: District of Columbia Not for Profit